We praise our Lord Jesus for allowing us to be a part of His work on earth.

Because you have given...My Word is in the hands of the Tzotzil children and their parents. Thank you for sharing My pain and their suffering. This is evidence of your abiding in Me! You heard My voice. You have been moved to action. You have shared and brought others to hear My voice for these expressions of love for Me. I praise you my sons and daughters.

Pastor Agustin Martinez with his wife, Marcelina, and his children. His congregation is located in isolated rural areas of Nava County. He ministers to the elderly shut-ins and poor families. He brings church worship to them. Through your faithful support he and his family have been able to purchase gas, Bible training materials to present to these families, food, hygiene products and basic medical supplies.

Teresa Miranda, Mexican Baptist Missionary to the Chol Indians in the Northern Regions of Chiapas, Mexico

We have partnered with Teresa by encouraging her through prayer and phone calls to visit and listen to her joys and struggles. Also, by providing funds for her ministerial evangelistic outreach to the Choles Indians. This include funding to reserve some prints of the new upcoming first time translated New Testament and sometime soon the complete Bible.

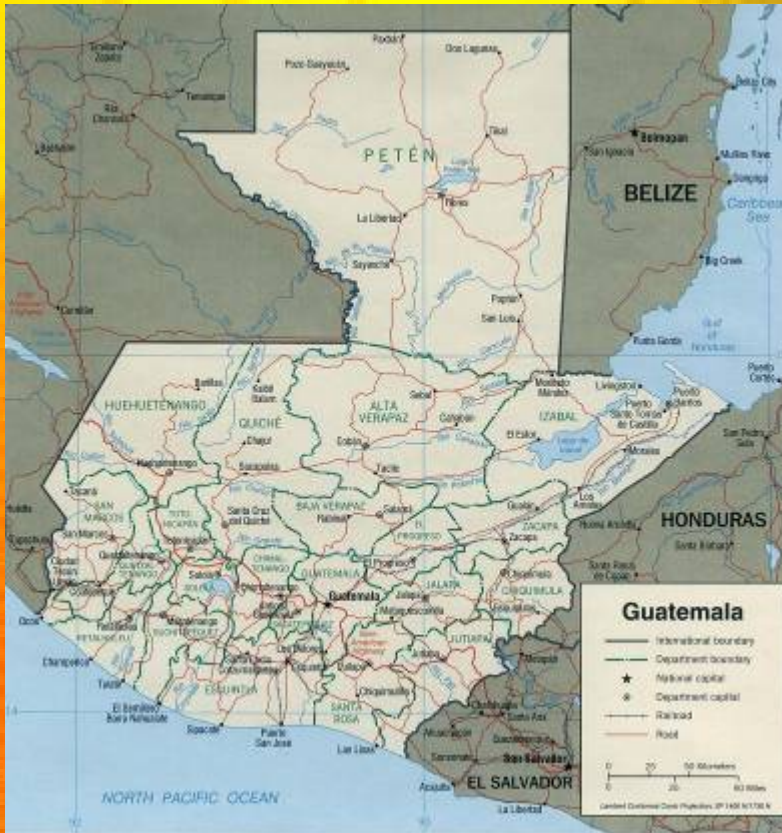

In partnership with Rob Rolison to reach the Tepehuanes Indians in Durango, Mexico

We have been aiding his evangelistic ministry through prayer and financial support for gas expenses, humanitarian supplies and to sponsor team travel expenses.

“Past the Edge Ministries” has focused on working with the Nahuatl', Totenaco, Cora, Huichol and Tepehuanes people of interior Mexico. The Tepehuanes is truly an unreached people group in the mountains with less than 2% who have ever been evangelized. Literally town after town has never heard the Gospel story.

Rick Warren

I Love you,
JESUS

These are days for the children of faith to stand and be counted. Now is the time for the light to shine on whoever is around. One life can be proof of the hope-that is YOU!

I am going to believe what I believe. Gonna walk that line if it cost me everything to stand for what is right, so everyone can see, JESUS is what they need. Gonna live what I believe.

The world see God's grace when we work and pray and when we love like we mean it. Has there ever been a day to give ourselves away. Oh, I think we are in it.

One life can be the proof of the Hope that is YOU! I am going to believe what I believe. Gonna walk that line if it cost me everything to stand for what is right so everyone can see that JESUS is what they need. Gonna live what I believe.

There is a passion deep inside. Oh for my life to testify. Lord let me be used to be a witness for You with faith and conviction. You called me by name, and I will not be the same.

Live a life. Walk that line. Live what I believe. Stand for what is right. Jesus is what they need.

One life can be the proof of the Hope that is YOU! I am going to believe what I believe. Gonna walk that line if it cost me everything to stand for what is right so everyone can see that JESUS is what they need. Gonna live what I believe!
